- Grammar and vocabulary development

Mini-Group

The Business English Mini Group is designed for professional and business people who would like to work in a small group of maximum 4 students. This is ideal for clients who wish to combine the benefits of having plenty of access to a trainer and also being able to participate in group conversation and comprehension that comes from peer learning. It is designed to give the client the skills to communicate effectively in English and to improve their confidence when working in a business environment.

English Plus Courses

inlingua Edinburgh offers a range of English Plus courses that offer English language students the chance to discover Scotland's fascinating history and culture. With so much going on in Edinburgh, it would be a shame to miss out! English Plus courses combine a traditional classroom based English language course with a supplementary cultural option.

English Plus Culture

The course offers General English at all levels in the morning from 9.45 to 13.00 plus a cultural component in the afternoon from 14.30 to 17.30. The afternoon programme introduces the students to Edinburgh and The Scottish Arts, History and Culture.

As well as providing a fascinating insight into Edinburgh and Scotland, students will also benefit from the extra use of conversational English outside the classroom as each English Plus course is accompanied by an inlingua Edinburgh teacher.

The Social and Cultural Programme will include some of the following:

- Tours of Edinburgh – The Castle, The Old Town, The Royal Palace and The Scottish Parliament
- Art Galleries and Exhibitions: The National Gallery, The Portrait Gallery, The Modern Art Gallery, and The Dean Gallery and others.
- The National Museum and others
- Scottish Cultural and Historical/ Traditions Tours
- Lectures on Scottish Politics.

Evenings are optional and may include Music and Concerts, Folk singing, Theatre, Films, Whisky Tastings and Pub visits.

Weekend options can also be booked directly at inlingua Edinburgh and include; coach tours of the Scottish Highlands as well as Golf and other sporting activities.

English for Education Professionals

Teachers of English as a foreign language or education professionals from within the EU, can apply for Comenius or Grundtvig funding to study this course (UK-2013-1977-037).

The English for Education Professionals course is designed for professionals and educators who wish to develop fluency and gain confidence in English. Students on the course will improve all four communication skills in a professional context. The course is practical with interactive group work, and will involve linguistic competence with practical feedback from trainers.

The course also features a teaching methodology component which runs for two afternoons per week 14.30 to 17.30. Each course is prepared around the participants needs and requirements. It will look at teaching and learning styles, practices and beliefs and establishing learners needs. It will look at the four skills – teaching strategies, techniques and problem solving. Classroom management and teaching resources, the use of technology in the classroom and CLIL are also discussed.

For three afternoons per week the course will also introduce participants to Edinburgh and The Scottish Arts, History, Culture and Edinburgh Festivals. This component varies according to the time of year but will typically include guided tours and visits to places of interest in Edinburgh.

This English for Education Professionals course can be booked for one or two weeks throughout the year.

English + Festival

Edinburgh is famous throughout the world for its festival scene. For the month of August, the city becomes alive as both the Edinburgh International Festival and The Fringe Festival combine to form the biggest celebration of the arts on the planet.

Generally students will follow the General English Half-day group course 09.45 to 13.00, before following the inlingua Edinburgh Festival programme in the afternoon.

The course will introduce students to the history and culture of Edinburgh, as well as the Edinburgh festivals.

The festival programme will include cultural and festival activities such as:

- Tours of Edinburgh – The Castle, The Old Town, The Royal Palace and The Scottish Parliament
- Art Galleries and Exhibitions – The National Gallery, The Portrait Gallery and The Modern Art Gallery
- The Edinburgh Festival and Fringe Festival performances
- The Edinburgh Book Festival and lectures.

Entry to all sites and events is included in the price, and students will be accompanied by an inlingua Edinburgh teacher. Evening and weekend activities are available as a supplement, and can be booked at inlingua Edinburgh language school.

This course is open to individual or group bookings. A full itinerary can be produced upon request.

Why not take a language course in two of our inlingua schools?

We work with inlingua Cheltenham. This school is based in a beautiful country town in central England.

You can study at inlingua Edinburgh for one week or more and then transfer to inlingua Cheltenham for the next part of your course. By doing this, you will experience life in both Scotland and England and life in the city and the country.

You will discover the UK as a whole and will experience the different cultures that make up this country. You will meet a variety of people, hear different accents, sample different food and discover new places.

Why inlingua Edinburgh?

Edinburgh is Scotland's capital city. With its stunning architecture, hundreds of free attractions, vibrant night life, beaches, festivals and wealth of history, Edinburgh is the perfect backdrop to your English studies.

Why two inlingua centres?

You will discover the UK as a whole and will experience the different cultures that make up this country. You will meet a variety of people, hear different accents, sample different food and discover new places.

Why inlingua Cheltenham?

A real English town, located in the heart of England. This is a place of natural beauty and a popular tourist attraction. Cheltenham has a reputation for its excellent shops, restaurants, cafes, bars, cinemas and theatres. It is also in an excellent position to visit many places of interest or larger cities such as Bath, Oxford, Cardiff and London.

This two centre course is available throughout the year for individual or group bookings.
